STORY 1: Noah obeys God

This story is about Noah building the Ark.

READ:
Genesis 6: 5-22

The Bible says that when God first made the world, everything was good and beautiful.

However, Adam and his family soon disobeyed God. God was sorry that He had ever made them. God decided that all people needed to be punished.

But there was one man, Noah, who really pleased God.

Who was it that pleased God?

God's plan for Noah was to build a big boat called an Ark.

When it was ready God would send a great flood upon the earth.

Everything living would die, but Noah and his family would be kept safe in the Ark.

Below are some of the animals that God told Noah to bring into the Ark. Draw one more of each creature in the box provided.

/14

When all were safely inside, God shut the door. Noah knew that they would be kept safe in God's care. It was sad that no one outside the Ark wanted to trust God and be kept safe.

STORY 2: Safe in the Ark

This story is about when the flood started.

READ:
Genesis 7: 1-16

During the time that Noah was building the Ark the people probably asked him what he was doing. It must have been sad for Noah as he watched them turn away from God.

Noah and his family went into the Ark. Soon it began to rain. It rained and rained and rained, day after day after day! The rivers and seas became great floods. All the trees and hills were covered in water.

For the people outside the Ark, it was now too late. God had shut the door!

Who shut the door of the Ark?

STORY 3: A brand new start

This story is about when the flood finished.

READ:
Genesis 8: 1-19

At last the rain had stopped. The Ark came to rest on a high mountain.

One day, Noah sent a raven from the Ark to see if the water had gone down. But the raven kept flying back and forth. Later, Noah sent out a dove which returned with nothing.

A week later he sent the dove again. This time, it came back with an olive leaf in its beak. This meant that the tops of the trees were now above the water.

A week later, Noah sent out the dove for the third time. This time it did not come back. Noah knew that the water had gone down even further, and the dove had found a new home.

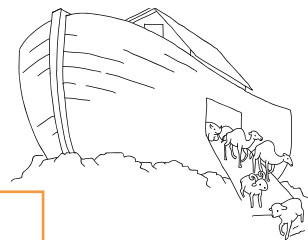

Put the sentences from the story in the correct order by numbering them 1-3.

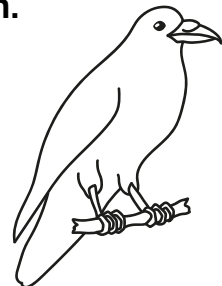

Noah sent out a dove.

The Ark rested on a mountain.

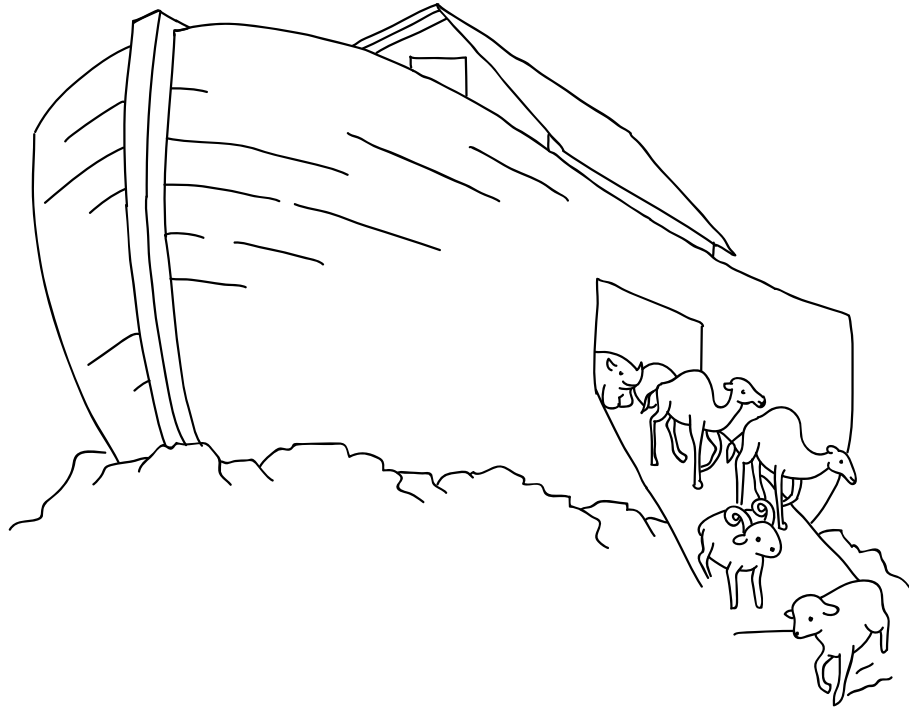

Noah sent out a raven.

When the ground was dry again, God said to Noah, "Go out of the Ark and bring all the animals with you."

Colour the Ark and draw Noah standing on dry ground.

The Bible tells us this in Romans 6: 23.

God saved Noah and his family. The Bible says that we too need to be saved – not from a flood, but from the punishment our sins deserve. Christians believe that Jesus took this punishment for us when He died on the cross.

STORY 4: God's promise

This story is about Noah saying thank you.

READ:
Genesis 8: 20-22
& 9: 8-17

Noah and his family were safe! They had been in the Ark for a long time, but now God said that Noah, his family and the animals could leave the Ark.

Noah was thankful to God for keeping him and his family safe. He made an altar (special pile of stones) to say thank you.
